-ADVISORY-

ARIZONA, SONORA GOVERNORS TO MEET ON BORDER SECURITY

Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano and Sonoran Governor Eduardo Bours will meet with local, state and federal officials to discuss the increasing violence along the Arizona-Sonora border. The meeting will take place during the Arizona-Mexico Commission 2007 Summer Plenary in Tucson.

They will receive updates on cross-border law enforcement partnerships as well as the latest information on local, state and federal initiatives on both sides of the border. These discussions will include issues such as drug trafficking, human smuggling, stolen vehicles, security along the border and increasing international partnerships.

Governors Bours and Napolitano will address the media and take action on decisions made during the meeting. Representatives from local, state and federal agencies will also be available to the media for questions.

DATE: Friday, June 15

TIME: Media Availability – 11:30 a.m.

LOCATION: Westin La Paloma Resort, Goldwater
3800 East Sunrise Drive
Tucson, Arizona

Please note: Media must check in at the Arizona-Mexico Commission registration desk prior to the media availability.
